

MISSION: POSSIBLE

Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to submit your corporate mission statement for the judging. The task is simple (e-mail it to bri@uvmag.com), but the outcome will be memorable (a feature in the Winter issue of BusinessQ).

The criteria includes prose that expertly and eloquently conveys your company's purpose — a statement that makes our judges say, "Mission: Accomplished."

This message will self-destruct Oct. 10.
